Meet Our Makers

For the first time ever, meet the designers joining us for our 2021 Alora Lighting Collection. We at Alora could not be more proud to be collaborating with esteemed designers in our community to make pieces that truly stand out in a crowd. This year's collection features new designs from our first guest designers Alan Peppin and Charles Pavarini III, and our in-house Lead Designer, Ryan Pauly. Be sure to look for our designers' signatures on their designs throughout this catalog.

Ryan Pauly

Ryan Pauly is the Alora Lighting in-house designer and lead product developer for the brand. Ryan is an interdisciplinary designer with vast experience and knowledge in the modern lighting realm. In 2020, Ryan's design for Kuzco Lighting was awarded a Red Dot for Product Design of the Year. His passion is to create visionary lighting that sparks innovation wherever it is installed.

Pavarini III

Charles Pavarini III

As grandson of Charles Pavarini, Sr., Charles Pavarini III has reinterpreted the legacy of the Pavarini Construction Company, known for creating historic NYC landmarks. Pavarini's design style has evolved into a highly poetic blend of traditional and contemporary design elements, always dramatically executed, given Pavarini's keen sense of color, style, and use of lighting as a 'design tool'. Through the years, Pavarini has accumulated 33 industry awards, but one single project reaped more awards than any other: For Lucas Place Lofts, Kansas City, MO, he won four awards, including the coveted LUMEN Award for the Falling Sticks fixture.

AlPin

Alan Peppin

Alan Pepin is a designer of bestselling lighting and home furnishings. He founded Red Dog Run Design in 2005, with the goal of offering captivating design to the best brands in retail. His method of design storytelling includes in-depth trend reporting, insightful merchandising and engaging product illustration. He is an advocate for creative thinking, a fine artist, and a dog person.

Aryas

Haute couture jewellery has always been made to wow and inspire. Aryas was born as the lighting counterpart to designer necklaces. With three ribbons of illumination that layer and glow on a Vintage Brass frame, the Aryas has just the right amount of bling. The three necklace-like illuminations can be slightly adjusted up or down the frame to suit your style. Just like your favorite statement piece of jewelry, the Aryas is a conversation starter that is sure to wow guests. As they say, lighting is the jewelry of design.

Celeste

Inspired by lunar patterns of light, the Celeste Collection by Charles Pavarini III is a nature-inspired marvel. Taking notes from the shape of a crescent-moon, the frame reflects the illumination within, there is a feeling of majesty throughout this collection. Dancing inside the crescent frame are four full-moon-inspired globes of glass that are mystifying and glamorous. Available in two luxe finishes: Vintage Brass and Urban Bronze. .

Marcel

Designed by fine artist and product designer Alan Peppin, the Marcel Collection takes the silhouette of a classic chandelier to a modern level. With swooping clear glass and minimal metal frame, the Marcel Collection excites without over-complicating great design. Modern and innovative elements, such as glass openings creating more space for light to peek through, curved metal crowns atop glass shades, and essentialist architectural notes, define this collection. Vintage meets everyday modern luxury in this simple yet stunning collection.

Lancaster

Designed by fine artist and product designer, Alan Peppin, the Lancaster Collection takes the classic vintage lanterns of 1920s' Paris and elevates it to a modern marvel. The elements of Lancaster are reduced to the most simplistic elements possible, to create a timeless look that is sure to coincide with any design style. The metal frame serves as the direction for the fixture, guiding the glass and shape gently. The generous glass on the pendants of the Lancaster Collection were designed with the intent to reflect all the small moments shared around a kitchen. This collection is sure to be remarkable in any space.
